MERRY CHRISTMAS

Carnarvon Laundry Winner

Mr. Aris Marcus, owner of Carnarvon Laundry announced the winner of the contest which was staged through the Carnarvon Laundry, over the past several weeks. Mr. Sexton of Norland was the lucky winner of a portable stereo record player.

CLUB "35" TURKEY WINNERS

Club "35" held their annual Christmas Turkey draw this week and are pleased to announce that Ron Pearson of Haliburton, with number 375 won the first draw. Mr. F. H. Brooks of Minden won the second draw with ticket number 232. Congratulations.

Minden Nursery School Held Parents Night

Twenty-two mothers and fathers attended the Minden Nursery School Association Parents' Night held at St. Paul's Anglican Church Wednesday, December 14th.

The president, Mrs. Marilyn Palmer, thanked the parents for coming out at this particularly busy time of year. She reported that the teacher and three assistants had had X-rays in September, many new supplies had been added, insurance coverage provided for each pupil and teacher, and the School was available itself of many books from the Haliburton County Library.

On October 11th, a Miss Gibson, Supervisor, Department of Public Welfare inspected the School and the location and operation proved satisfactory to her. Santa Clause is going to make an appearance at the Christmas Party and the children are most anxious to show him the decorations they have created.

Mrs. Irma Walker, Secretary-Treasurer, read the Treasurer's Report and the Minutes of the Annual meeting held in June at which time elections took place.

Mrs. Joan Hatkoski, Public Relations, spoke of the many articles released and extended our sincere appreciation to the Minden Progress for publishing them.

All areas of activity were set up as during the operation of the School and to enlighten the parents, the teachers, Mrs. Jean Cox, gave a detailed account of the daily schedule. A questionnaire period followed.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK

The Minden Progress Will not publish next week, due to Monday and Tuesday being holidays.

SNOW CONDITIONS GOOD AT SIR SAM'S

Bob Bishop told the Progress today that ski tow at Sir Sam's Inn will begin operating this Saturday. Snow conditions on the hill are good at the present time, however, he said, if the weather man cooperates with a little more snow, conditions over the holiday season will be excellent. A great deal of work has been done during the past summer to smooth and improve ski trails in an effort to provide better skiing with a minimum of snow.

And the angel said unto them, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men".

During this Yuletide season, think of the real meaning of Christmas. It is the season of giving and rejoicing — give thanks. What ever you do, drive carefully, and have a really good Christmas and a Happy New Year.

FENELON SENIOR CITIZENS STAGE FINE SHOW HERE

On Friday evening, December 16th, the Fenelon Falls Senior Citizens performed on stage here in our Senior Citizen's Home and entertained a full auditorium.

On hand to see the performance were residents of Hyland Crest, along with Rotarians and wives, many visitors also attended, a bus load of senior citizens from Fenelon also came for the even-

Mr. Tom Gunton was master of ceremonies, and gave a performance with his dummy, Gerry.

The main feature of the evening was performed by former Minden resident, Mr. George Laidlow — with his magical act. This proved most interesting to the many people on hand, proving the hand faster than the eye.

Pictured above shows some of the Hyland Crest residents busy making Christmas decorations in the craft room. Working with the residents are some of the Lady Auxiliary members from both Haliburton and Minden teaming up to keep our senior citizens occupied and happy. The Auxiliary have been doing a fine job at the home.

The Night Before Christmas

by Bob Harvey Jr.

'Twas the night before Christmas & I got to thinking,
While the lights on the tree started in winking
Kids settled down with dreams of delight,
Both Jeanne and I were filled with excitement.

My neighbours and friends who live cross the country,
Were thinking of morning and a tree full of bounty,
Expecting some things they'd been hoping to get
Or the traditional tie from Auntie Bridgette.

I looked at the cards all lined round the room,
With candles and holly, a snowman with a broom,
Each one expressing in various ways,
Love and best wishes for the coming days.

A feeling of kinship from near and from far,
One happy family watched by a star
That shines in the heavens all through the year,
Letting us know there is nothing to fear.

I wondered when finally the old man showed up,
With reindeer and sleigh, how quick we'd get up
And offer a hand of warm hearty greeting,
After all its a year since our previous meeting.

And watch as he worked and filled up each stocking,
What is he doing? Its really quite shocking.
For he pulled from his bag things, I hollered, Heh!
that's stuff that we have, and get every day.

He had a small lake all sparkling and blue
And said, "Now Bob, this gift is for you.
He then turned to Jeanne with his eyes full of glee,
"For you, dear, I have a lovely pine tree".

"For the kids I've got hillsides,
Fall leaves and flowers,
Things that will give them enjoyment for hours.
For all there are chipmonks, racoons and a blue-jay,
Gifts that will last them from now until Doom's Day.

Last but not least, I leave you the Highlands,
The sun and the wind, Boy, I wish they were my lands.
Enjoy all your gifts as each day goes by,
For life's really short for both you and I.

Instead of looking each year at this time,
For something new that's come off the line
View what you have, its not too expensive,
Its unique, fresh and really extensive.

Its yours to protect as long as you live,
Share with your friends, its easy to give
Add some peace and good will to men,
I'll be back around next year to see you again.

And I heard him call back, as he passed out of sight,
"Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!"

What was the best Christmas you ever spent?

Probably you will conjure up a picture of an enormous turkey dinner, a house bursting with family and friends, the delighted squeals of a child who got just the doll or sled she wanted.

Getting seems enormously important to a child. With the coming of a little more maturity, many grown-ups discover that giving is also important.

Modern psychologists tell us that it is essential to mental health to give of our selves, our time, our interest. The wisdom of the ages handed down in the truths of the great religions, tells us that we are our brother's keeper.

Giving seems very natural at Christmas — and not only to our family and friends. Many people feel that Christmas isn't complete until they have put a few coins in The Salvation Army Kettle, or mailed a cheque for a more substantial amount.

Sharing with others, via The Salvation Army, is particularly gratifying because you are assured that your Christmas gift will keep on giving 365 days a year. It helps all those in need — regardless of their religious beliefs, race, respectability, or lack of it. The unique ministry of The Salvation Army is as universal and never ending as the God the Salvationist seeks to serve by serving mankind.

Children are always high on the Army's Christmas list. Those in institutions receive not only gifts, but friendly visits. Toys, dolls and games by the thousands some reconditioned, but most new, are placed under some child's Christmas tree.

LEGISLATION WILL CHANGE IN NEW YEAR REGARDING AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

In Ontario, effective January 1st, 1967, a gratuitous passenger has the right to claim against the owner and driver of an automobile in which he may be injured. To be successful, such a non-paying passenger will be required to prove gross negligence on the part of the owner or driver.

This change in Ontario provincial legislation, while placing an additional burden of responsibility on automobile owners and drivers, does give gratuitous passengers rights similar to that of passengers in other provinces. Few persons will quarrel with this 1967 Automobile insurance premiums include a new Passenger Hazard charge of 7 per cent, necessary as a result of your increased exposure to claims. If your policy provides Passenger Hazard cover, it will be shown as "Inc." (included) and the charge is part of the Third Party Liability premium.

Business In MindenMEDLEY'S BOWL*BUD AND MURIEL REPRESENT BOWLING IN COUNTY

When one talks about bowling in this county, he immediately thinks of Bud and Muriel, for they have represented bowling here over the past 14 years, and have become part of the game in this county.

The Medleys got their feet wet in the entertainment business back in 1948 when they built their dance hall in Carnarvon. Since that time they have had many of the leading bands play here, entertaining many thousands of teen-agers and grown-ups as well.

Last summer they purchased the Minden bowl, which had previously been owned by Bob Cox. This location had quite a history before it was turned into a bowling alley.

Mr. Moss Kellett of Minden had a Service Station here at one time, and then sold it to Phillip Taylor, who ran it till the fire burned down half of the main street taking the station with it. However Mr. Taylor rebuilt the station in 1946, and later sold it to Mr. Earl Hewitt. The Municipality finally purchased the building and property from Mr. Hewitt, and it represented the Municipal office for two and a half years. When Mr. Cox took it over from the municipality he turned it into a bowling alley.

Bud Medley originally comes from Owen Sound, and came to this county to teach school at Maple Lake. He later worked in construction for C. D. Howe, before going into business for himself. Mr. Medley has also been very active in the Highway 35 Association over the years.

Muriel Medley is a native of this county and has played a big part in many of the groups and organizations here. She was a leader of the first group of the U.C.W. in Carnarvon. She is a member of the Lindsay Presbytery, and as every knows was the leading figure in the reality of a senior citizens home here in Minden. Muriel is still serving on the advisory committee.

This summer they decided to put a grand prize up for their bowlers, this was in the form of a new Pontiac car for anyone bowling a perfect game in league play, and have put up $1000 to anyone bowling a perfect game in open bowling. These are big prizes for a small business here in Haliburton, however this describes the Medleys, for they are always anxious to satisfy their customers, and in doing so promote business for the entire county.

Pictured above is Muriel and Bud Medley, owners of the Minden and Carnarvon bowling alleys. They have been keen citizens of this county over the years, and have done much to promote this area, as well as their own business.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE CHRISTMAS

Here it is exactly three days before the most exciting day of the year, Christmas. Everyone is making last minute preparations, be it shopping, tying the last ribbon on a present, or nipping those pin feathers from the big bird. For me it is just completing another Christmas editorial.

As one walks down the street, you can see the exuberant expressions on people's faces, as they talk, laugh, yes even shout; the Christmas spirit is taking hold of everyone.

Radio and television start the ball rolling nowadays, with commercials dealing with Christmas gimmicks of all descriptions, along with their seasonal plays and the most pleasant songs of all, the carols. Storekeepers get into the swing of things with their window displays, competition bringing in more elaborate ones each year. Publishers push their holly-studded ads and the seasonal messages of good tidings are also in order. The Scotch pine and spruce growers across the country are applying their final sales pitch, for there is no money in a January bonfire. For the youngsters Santa Clause has already packed his sack, and is double-checking his letters for the long haul from the North Pole.

As these last four days creep by we are all foreseeing the night before Christmas. We picture the old traditional scene with soft falling snow, the creaking under foot of the crisp frozen snow on a quiet still night. Although carol singers are a little out of style, we can still see them beneath the lamp light. Inside, we see dad in his easy chair, pipe in hand, before the warm fireplace — children have already hung their stockings, and are now nestled in bed — mother of course is preparing the dressing for the feast of the year, Christmas day. These scenes do not always come to pass, but with the ring of church bells and the scent of the pine tree, a vivid imagination will capture it anyway.

What makes this time of year a happy one? In this, the Twentieth Century, one would probably say, it is the seasonal festivities, the decorated trees and homes, the happiness expressed in children's faces, for that early morning peek at the toys. For many it may be the vacation of a couple of days that usually accompanies the Yule season. Regardless of what makes your heart cry for this most joyous time of the year. Stop! Remember, this is a birthday — give thanks.

Before we sit back and enjoy ourselves this Christmas we should all give a little thought to those who will weep, starve and die during this happiest of seasons. For most of us, Sunday will mean turkey, presents and gaiety, but for millions on this globe, Santa will never come. One just has to look around to see the poverty-stricken people, to say the least of those in India and China who will starve this winter. There are those, sick and shut-in, who would give thanks for their health and a little fresh air, let alone the lights of Christmas. The mathematicians are at work right now figuring up the broken hearts and homes that car accidents will bring over the Yuletide. We could go on and on, but as most of us know, these things will happen at any cost.

Christmas is a time of giving, and if one has a little extra it is not hard to find someone, maybe a child, that a gift wouldn't brighten up the day. The least we can all do is say a prayer, in hopes that it will be answered.

We can not pause too long on these sad aspects of life, for one has to learn to live with them, because they will always be with us.

With automation these days, things go out of style fast. However, Christmas stays the same, except for decorations which are now very elaborate. It would be a shame to do away with the regulars, such as Bells, Holly and Mistletoe, especially the latter. But, things do change — look at the girls hair cuts, on the boys — the beatles are no longer at the top — the minnie skirt will not stay short — its getting shorter — believe it or not, and they are trying to change sex! — But, at this time of year, it doesn't matter much to us, whether things go modern or stay on the old fashioned level, whether it rains or snows, or even if the minnie skirts comes off completely — Christmas is still the most, on my calendar, and we think on most calendars. With this we wish everyone a very, Merry Christmas, and a happy, happy New Year.

"HEY, RUDOLPH! Just look at that holiday traffic. There'd be a lot of disappointed children tomorrow morning if I had to make my rounds through THAT". Don't YOU disappoint the folks who are expecting you this Christmas. The Ontario Department of Transport has this advice for drivers who want to reach their Christmas destinations safely, and on time . . . start out a little earlier so you won't have to rush . . . leave a little more space between cars for an extra cushion of safety . . . don't pile parcels (or passengers) inside the car in such a way as to obscure your vision or hamper your driving. If the weather is stormy, get the feel of the road by testing your brakes as soon as possible . . . if you do have to stop in a hurry, pump your brakes, don't jam them on.

MAKE SAFETY COUNT AT CHRISTMAS WHILE DRIVING

When you're loading up your car with Christmas parcels, remember to pack them so they don't obstruct your view.

A cluttered-up back window, obstructing a driver's view to the rear, is not only hazardous but also illegal under the Highway Traffic Act, unless there is a mirror attached to the car in a position to give the driver a clear view of the roadway behind, other than through the rear window. This is a recent amendment to the Highway Traffic Act which also requires a clear view through the windshield and through the windows on either side of the driver.

Urging motorists and pedestrians to be especially cautious during the holiday season, Ontario Transport Minister Irwin Haskett points out, Winter is always a hazardous time. Early darkness and bad weather cut down visibility and snow and ice make roads treacherous. The holiday season brings additional hazards. Streets and highways are more crowded than usual and the dazzling Christmas decorations add to the confusion.

SPORTS

WITH BOB BEENEY

This week we take a look at our Intermediate entry from Minden, so far they have lost their first three games, two of which were exhibition. The big difference in each contest seemed to be condition — but this was expected, since the Minden club were the last team to hit the ice this fall, and have only managed to get in a half a dozen practises do to ice not being available at the Haliburton rink.

From what we have seen so far this year, they have the makings of a good club, and will round into shape much faster when ice is available here. Coach Greir says, he expects the team will finish in the top three, which will give them a play-off position — four teams out of the six will make the play-offs.

This team featured a strong defensive club, with that old veteran goal tender Bob Austen playing some of his best hockey this year. On defence the Minden club is as strong as any in the league with junior star of last year Doug Higgins holding down a starting position, along with Gooderham star, Ozy Hunter. Making up the other line on defence is that fast rugged veteran Jack Raymond, and that old smoothy with the puck Dave Sawyer. Neil Burk will be a big help to this club also when he returns to action, after getting over a car accident he had recently.

On the forward lines they have plenty of talent but not much depth. Two of the Junior stars from last years Haliburton club, Fred Hewitt, and Mike Jackson figure in as the two men with plenty of leg power, along with centre Roy Hoare of Gooderham, who is captain of the team, is looking better each time out on the ice. This fellow should be the big goal scorer for the locals this year, other forwards are Ron Barr, Bev Billings, Bill atson, Glen Pitts, Murray Hunter, Larry Hunter, Vince Billings and Ron Mintz. All in all it looks like Minden will be well represented in this league and will give the community some pretty good entertainment over the winter.

The executive behind this club is made up of Coach Al Greir, Manager Sinc Nesbit, and executive members Floyd Hall and Lyle McKnight. These men have always done a good job in this community with the hockey clubs, and we feel sure they will be a hard working group once again this year.

Let us take this opportunity to say Merry Christmas to all the sport fans and a happy New Year.

Three Killed In Car Crash

Three Lochlin area people returning from Christmas shopping in Fenelon Falls Saturday afternoon lost their lives when the vehicle in which they were riding went out of control in a snowstorm and rolled in the ditch striking a large elm tree.

Instantly killed in the accident were Bertram Charles Hicks, 63, his wife Elizabeth, 62, and their daughter, Mrs. Murial Francic, 29, all of Lochlin.

Police reported the pick-up truck driven by Bertram Hicks was proceeding north on Highway 121 just north of Burnt River. It is reported it was snowing quite heavily at the time and the truck skidded off the road and was in the process of rolling over when the cab came in contact with the tree. Police said the impact crushed the cab on the occupants causing instant death.

The three bodies were brought to Lindsay where an autopsy revealed the cause of death was severe head injuries.

Provincial Constable Dale Coe of the Fenelon Falls detachment investigated the accident.

MANY PEOPLE ARE PREDICTED TO DIE OVER XMAS SEASON

The Safety Council is expecting between 55 and 65 Canadians will be killed in traffic accidents between Friday evening and midnight Monday over the Christmas weekend, the Canadian highway Safety Council predicts.

For the similar 78 hours over the New Year's weekend the council expects road deaths to run between 35 and 45.

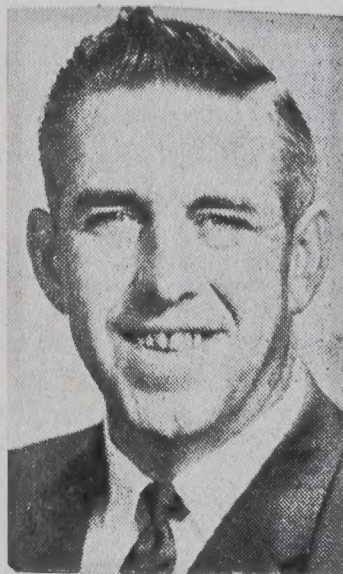

The council issued a special warning about the drinking driver.

"The drunk driver may be in the minority during the festive season but he may be driving the car just ahead of the one in the next traffic lane. It only takes a few drunks at the wheel to make permanent shambles of Christmas for the survivors of the drunk's innocent victims."

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

During the last year the world has been turning its eyes skyward, as around the earth at tremendous speed a man-made satellite runs its course. It is significant that this occurs at a time when 1900 years ago, our forefathers, also looked to the sky to see the star that led the wise-men to a stable in Bethlehem where our Saviour King lay in a manger.

What a difference between then and now, the Modern satellite launched with its potential conquest of the world by force, and the star of 1900 years ago with its message of Peace on Earth, Good Will To Men. A conquest, yes, but one of love.

We are thinking today of the conquest of the world, not by might, power or force, but by love; the love of God for man and man's love for his fellow-men. This is the time of giving and of receiving — at Christmas the one just as important as the other; for without receiving the gift that came to us with Christ's birth at Bethlehem, the whole spirit of Christmas giving becomes meaningless. So our first thought is the grateful reception of Christ's gift to man of eternal life and then in return our gift of self to him. With the acceptance of the Babe of Bethlehem, our life and our gifts take meaning and form. We are not asked to-day for gifts of frankincense and myrrh, but we are asked to pass along the gifts of talents, time and possessions that are ours, to make this world a better place in which to live. Humbly we stand at the manger again and make our decision to receive or to reject — to give or to withhold.

Some person has said that, "man is not a cistern for storing, but a channel for giving," so the Christmas wish is that each one of us in our own way may gratefully receive and share the wonderful gift that was given to the world at Bethlehem so long ago.

When we turn our eyes to the sky, let us not be dazzled by man's conquest of outer space, but thrilled anew as we see the stars shine in the heavens. Forever an emblem of God's guiding hand over man. Stars that may sometimes be dimmed by scudding clouds and temporary storms, but remain nevertheless to shine through again as man returns, his faith strengthened, to pay homage and respect to His Maker.

Little Stories about Great Hymns
Away in a Manger

*Away in a Manger, no crib for his bed
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky, looked down where He lay
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.*

Dr. Martin Luther has been called the "father of evangelical hymnody." It was through the efforts of this great man that the lost art of congregational singing was restored, and the Christian hymn again was given a place in public worship. This militant man who wrote "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" was also the tender man who wrote "Away in a Manger."

HOLY MEANING OF CHRISTMAS EXPRESSED IN CHURCH SERVICES

"And the angel said unto them Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

Like the shepherds who left their flocks to seek the Babe of Bethlehem, men, women and children of this community will put aside not only their everyday concerns but the more immediate interest in tree trimming and package wrapping and go to find once again the holy meaning of Christmas, in special services held by local churches.

Catholic churches will proclaim the birth of the King of Christendom by solemn midnight masses. To commemorate the Nativity, Protestant churches will hold candlelight and communion services and children's programs.

The custom of saying mass at midnight derives from an old belief that Christ was born at that hour. Actually, mass may be said at any hour during the night before Christmas, and in some countries the first Christmas mass is said at four or five in the morning.

According to early Roman regulations, Christmas mass was celebrated "when the cock crows" — about three o'clock in the morning. Spanish speaking people still call midnight mass "Misa de Gallo," while the Portuguese term is "Missa do Gallo" — in both cases, "mass of the cock."

Candlelight services held in Protestant churches symbolize Christ as the light of the world, and the shining beams of the candle call to mind the Star that shone to guide the Wise Men.

"O CHRISTMAS TREE" MEANS FIR TO MOST

Tradition for trimming, the fir is the tree most people think of when they sing "O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree, how lovely are they branches."

Although there are close to 40 species of firs found in Central and Southern Europe, Asia north of the Himalayas, and North America, the holiday favorite — the Douglas fir — is not even a true fir.

Originally named false hemlock with yew-like needles, the Douglas fir is neither a yew, hemlock, spruce nor fir. But it does have some of the characteristics of all four evergreens, and its identity confused botanists for years.

The Douglas fir's graceful, upturned growth and ability to hold its needles when cut have put it in the top spot for Christmas use. It also produced top-quality lumber. The state of Montana is an important source of Douglas firs.

Next popular Christmas tree is the balsam fir. Also called Canada balsam or Balm of Gilead, according to the Encyclopedia Americana, balsam grows from Newfoundland to Virginia, west to Iowa and north and west deep into Canada.

Balsam retains needles well and gives off a pleasing fragrance. It is especially well-liked in the Eastern United States.

Included among the many other Christmas choices are the Eastern red, cedar, black spruce and Scotch pine, has been a favorite here in Canada over recent years.

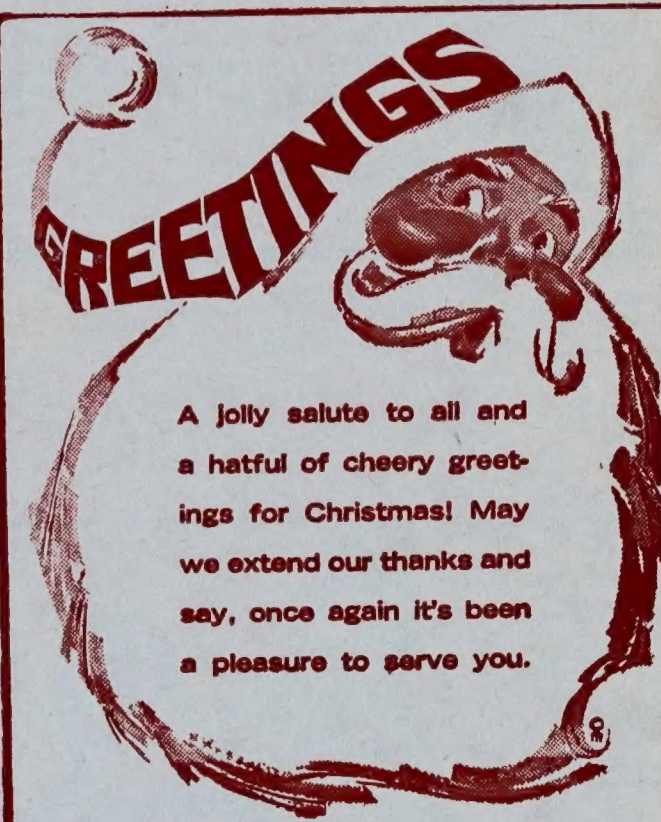

Canadian Christmas trees, from seven provinces, are part of the holiday scene in many countries. The United States, alone accounts for about 90 per cent of Canada's annual production of trees. Still others are shipped abroad, from Ethiopia to Venezuela.

CAROL SINGING

In England and France the custom of carol singing at Christmas stemmed from the songs sung between the scenes of the medieval "mystery" or "miracle" plays, which were created to teach the Bible to the people of the time, few of whom could read.

The early miracle plays portrayed the coming of Christ, in simple drama. Later plays became more elaborate, with fictional scenes added.

SEASON'S "FIRSTS"

ARE TRACED

Shepherds watched, angels sang and wise men travelled far to behold the miracles of the first Christ.

Since that holy night a multitude of legends and customs, both religious and secular, have developed as part of the holiday.

Each legend was once told, each custom once observed for the first time, and though origins of many traditions are now lost in time other Christmas "firsts" have been recorded for posterity.

There are historical Christmas "firsts", attested by church records and by scientific research into the early years of Christianity, as well as "firsts" of later history and "firsts" that blend fact with myth.

IN BETHLEHEM GA.

A 60-foot star lights the countryside around Bethlehem, Ga. at Christmas. A carol service is held beneath the star on Christmas night.

It is a real pleasure to say "thank you" and wish you the happiest of holidays.

Santa's Busy, But He Has Plenty Of Help

Even though Santa is sometimes pictured as traveling by rocket or by jet plane, his favorite mode of transportation still seems to be the famous reindeer-drawn sleigh. The only wonder is that he can remain as jolly as he traditionally is, when he has to cover the world in one night, delivering gifts by the billions. Perhaps the explanation may be found in the number of helpers he has, and also in the fact that Christmas Eve is not his only day for delivering gifts. A.D. he was honored as a friend to the young. December 6 is "Children's Day", and St. Nicholas, a real bishop, was the first "Santa". Many legends grew up around his name, and many centuries after his death on December 6, about 342 A.D., traveling by horse, brought gifts to reward children for good behavior.

Although Santa has to a large extent replaced St. Nicholas, in some European countries children still await the arrival of the bishop on the night of December 5, and set out shoes filled with hay and carrots for his horse. In Scandinavian and some other countries, Santa gets an assistant from St. Lucy, who is responsible for the distribution of gifts on her day, December 3. Christmas comes after Christmas Eve, when the Three Kings bring their gifts on Epiphany and French Canada, where the old tradition of giving gifts to children on New Year's day is observed. There's a resemblance to Christmas in the placing of gifts beside the fireplace, often in stockings.

isn't finished. Many Spanish children expect the Three Kings to bring them gifts on Epiphany and French Canada, where the old tradition of giving gifts to children on New Year's day is observed. There's a resemblance to Christmas in the placing of gifts beside the fireplace, often in stockings.

Whatever the gift-giving date Santa has a host of helpers to lighten his load. In addition to St. Lucy, Scandinavian countries have the Tomtar, little gray-bearded men who are said to hide gifts for boys and girls on Christmas Eve. The Christ Child or Kristkind brings the gifts in many countries.

In Italy the traditional gift-giver is Befana, sometimes described as a benevolent fairy and sometimes as a witch. Legend says that she misdirected the Magi or that she refused shelter to the holy family, in repentance, seeking the Christ Child and doing good to children on Christmas Eve.

So, when you look at it this way, you can see that old Santa has many good people helping him around the globe.

CHRISTIAN VISITORS SEEK CHURCH OF NATIVITY FOR THREE CELEBRATIONS OF CHRISTMAS

Pilgrimage to Bethlehem is for thousands of Christians each year the focal point of the religious observance of Christmas. Visitors of many faiths make the trip to Bethlehem, now a part of Jordan, to the church of the Nativity.

The manger so familiar to all who know the Christmas story was an improvised stable in a cave hewn out of rock, near the centre of the hill town of Bethlehem.

Christmas is observed three times at Bethlehem, and for each observance the Mandelbaum Gate between the Israel and Arab sectors of Jerusalem is opened to admit the Christian pilgrims.

Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox and Armenian denominations share the church of the Nativity. Roman Catholic churches begin the Christmas celebrations with masses on Christmas Eve, December 25.

Eastern churches observe the Christ's birth in January. For the Greek Orthodox churches, which still follow the old Julian calendar, Holy Night is January 6, Christmas Day January 7. Armenian churches celebrate both Christmas and Epiphany on January 19.

Those of the Protestant faiths gather in Shepherds Fields, the nearby site where according to tradition, the shepherds heard the angel of the Lord come to tell of the Nativity.

CHRISTMAS ROSE FAMED IN LEGEND

Blooming in the heart of winter and sometimes even in the snow, the Christmas rose is a plant famed in legend.

According to an old story, a poor little shepherdess had no gift to offer the Christ Child, and so she wept. When her tears touched the ground, flowers sprouted.

Delighted, she plucked an armful and hastened to the infant. The caress of His fingers turned the petals pink.

Botanists class the Christmas rose as a member of the buttercup family. Native to Southern Europe and Western Asia, it has leathery, dark green leaves and large saucer-shaped flowers with white or rose-tinted sepals.

ALL ABOUT CHRISTMAS

Throughout the Christian world, the holiday most universally enjoyed, by young and old alike, is Christmas. Although each country has its own kind of celebration, the most important feature of all — the true Christmas spirit of "good will to men" — is found in everyone.

The story of Christmas begins on a starry night long ago in the little city of Bethlehem near Jerusalem. On the hillsides shepherds sang as they attended their flocks. The town itself was alive with excitement, for many visitors had come from the surrounding country to pay their taxes. Among these visitors were Joseph, a carpenter of Nazareth, and his wife Mary. They arrived late and were very tired. The inn was already fully occupied so that Joseph and Mary were obliged to find shelter in the stable.

Many weeks past, an angel told Mary that she would become the mother of a child who would rule the Kingdom of men. On this night a son was born to her in the manger in Bethlehem. She wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid Him tenderly in the straw. Before dawn, shepherds appeared to tell that they had been visited on the hillsides by an angel who had directed them to the manger, saying that they would find there a new born Savior. Other angels too, they said, had appeared, saying of peace on earth, good will to men. Wise men who had followed a brilliant new star in the heavens came, too, bearing gifts. The child was called Jesus, which means Savior.

History at no point reveals exactly at what time of year Jesus was born. Consequently, His birth was celebrated on a number of different days by the Early Christian Church. In the fourth century, however, December 25 was established as the date on which Christ's birth would thenceforth be celebrated. For a great many years it was solely a religious festival, and even now, special Christmas services are held in many Christian churches.

IN DENMARK

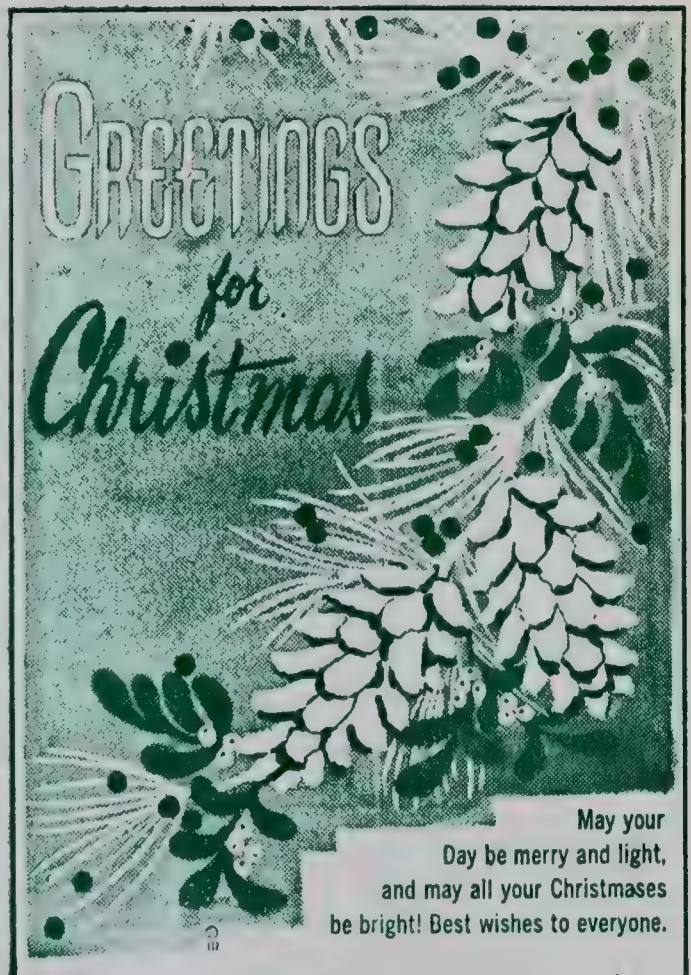

A Danish Christmas custom is the "Jul-bock", a long pole with a goat's head, whose duty it is to butt in when the children misbehave.

IN CANADA

Probably the most traditional custom on Christmas day is the festive meal, usually of turkey and Christmas pudding.

IN ENGLAND

Roast peacock is a Yule delicacy in England. An early recipe directs careful removal of the peacock's head and skin so that the roast bird can be sewn back into it before serving.

May your Day be merry and light, and may all your Christmases be bright! Best wishes to everyone.

HALIBURTON COUNTY TUBERCULOSIS AND HEALTH ASSOC. HELD MEETING

With the festive season of Christmas rapidly approaching The Haliburton County Tuberculosis and Health Association held their monthly meeting Tuesday, December 6th at the home of Mrs. Gordon VV. McManus with many members present despite the inclement weather.

The Scretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted as read. Other business was briefly discussed including the Christmas Seal Campaign.

Mr. W. J. Rea Stinson showed a fabulous collection of coloured slides taken whilst attending the International Union against tuberculosis held in Munich, Germany i nOctober 1965.

Mrs. Nan Hartle thanked Mr Stinson for hte excellent showing. We highly recommend any group interested in Europe, contacting Mr Stinson for showing of these slides.

Afterwards refreshments were served with Mrs. R. Schofield pouring Tea and Coffee, assisted by Mrs. Pat Waddell and Mrs. K. Banton.

Mr. W J Rae Stinson thanked Mrs. Gordon McManus for her gracious hospitality and a delightful time was enjoyed by all.

CHRISTMAS MORE THAN FEASTS AND MERRIMENT

"I will honour Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year." (Dickens)

When so many of us are caught up in an exhausting round of holiday activities, plunging through mobs of department store shoppers, wrapping gifts, mailing Christmas cards, planning parties, buying a tree, putting up decorations — we might do well to pause and consider these words. Are we so busy with the outward signs and symbols of the season that we forget their meaning?

For Christmas is more than a time for feasts and merriment. It is a time to open our hearts as well as our purses. It is a time to remember in honour of one born in a stable, those in bleak hospital rooms, those cut off from family and friends, those facing loneliness and despair.

Perhaps you have wanted to, but wondered where to go or how to help. One way that is available to all of us, however limited our time or resources, is to give to The Salvation Army. For over one hundred years, this fine organization has been bringing the comfort and joy of Christmas to many who would otherwise have known only abandonment and suffering. The invalid, the Skid Row alcoholic, the prisoner alone in his cell, the girl about to become an unwed mother, the unwanted child — these are not forgotten by The Salvation Army.

When you prepare your shopping list for Christmas, include a gift to The Salvation Army's Annual Christmas Appeal.

Through your generosity, many less fortunate people will enjoy a happy Christmas this year — perhaps for the first time. And you will enjoy Christmas much more when you have helped someone else.

LUTTERWORTH PUPILS

VISIT OTTAWA

Friday's daylight had not yet arrived when the grades six, seven, and eight pupils boarded a chartered bus destined for the Nation's Capital.

William C. Scott, M.P. greeted the boys and girls upon arrival at the Parliament Buildings. Following a fine luncheon, a most fascinating and educational tour began.

Did you know that the library there holds half a million books and that the whole building contains over 290 rooms? The pupils then proceeded to visit the red-carpeted Senate Chamber, the War Memorial room where hand-carved white stone depicts notorious events, and they also attended a busy session in the House of Commons where, through a listening device, they heard English being translated into "instant French". Soon they were gazing with awe at the elegant imported chandeliers, valued at $7000 dollars each, in the room where Princess Margaret had been entertained. Another highlight was the ascent in the Peace Tower. Just under the face of the huge clock the children viewed the city on one side, and to the east, the mighty swirling Ottawa River. The good-natured elevator man stopped halfway down to let the class catch a glimpse of the bells, the largest one of which weighed eleven tons. Statues of Champlain, the first white explorer to travel up the Ottawa River, Queen Victoria, who was responsible for choosing the capital site, and Baldwin and Lafontaine, the first Cabinet Minister, aroused in the pupils a sense of historical pride, to accompany their already awakened enthusiasm concerning federal affairs.

THANKS FOR YOUR HELP

When you support Christmas Seals you are helping to:—

- 1) Find the people who are ill with TB and other Respiratory Diseases (RD) — so they can be treated.
- 2) See that care and help are provided to those who suffer from TB or RD, so that they can return to a normal life.
- 3) Support education for doctors and nurses, as well as the general public, about these serious ailments.
- 4) Support Research that can lead to new, improved methods of treatment.
- 5) Contribute to the improvement of your community's health.

A determined fight is being waged to wipe out Tuberculosis and control other Respiratory Diseases. Your Christmas Seal dollars help make it possible to carry on that struggle.

We thank those who have contributed and urged those who have not done so to please do it now so that our programme for the forthcoming year may be carried on.
